

Marshall University

Marshall Digital Scholar

---

The Parthenon

University Archives

---

Fall 11-9-1960

The Parthenon, November 9, 1960

Marshall University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://mds.marshall.edu/parthenon>

---

Recommended Citation

Marshall University, "The Parthenon, November 9, 1960" (1960). The Parthenon. 1728.
<https://mds.marshall.edu/parthenon/1728>

This Newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the University Archives at Marshall Digital Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Parthenon by an authorized administrator of Marshall Digital Scholar. For more information, please contact zhangj@marshall.edu, beachgr@marshall.edu.

The Parthenon

MARSHALL COLLEGE STUDENT NEWSPAPER

Vol. 60

HUNTINGTON, W. VA.

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 9, 1960

No. 23

And Now A Word From Our Professor . . .

WHAT'S SO INTRIGUING to these workers at the Portsmouth Atomic Energy Commission plant? They're watching Richard A. Steele, assistant professor of political science, during his televised Russian language course presented over channel 13, WHTN-TV, every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 7-7:30 a.m. About 300 area residents are "enrolled" in this class.

Russian Language Course Attracts 300 TV Viewers

There's a professor on campus who has more than 300 students in one class!

But he doesn't have to worry about classroom space. In fact he could easily instruct hundreds of others at the same time.

His secret? It's the magic eye of television.

At the present time there are about 300 persons living within the radius of WHTN-TV's transmitter who are learning conversational Russian from Richard A. Steele, assistant professor of political science. In addition, 26 students are enrolled in the course for credit.

How successful has Professor Steele been since the course made its debut last September?

"This course is really off the ground," he said. "I've enjoyed it tremendously and I would say the students are learning very well."

The class meets from 11 a.m. to noon on Mondays, Wednesday and Fridays and grading of examination paper shows six As, eight or nine Bs, and the remainder are mostly Cs.

"I would say this is very good," Professor Steele said.

The 300 Tri-State residents who are taking the course via TV go to class from 7 to 7:30 a.m. three times weekly. These early-birds watch a video tape of the classroom instruction. They are equipped with a textbook and an exercise book, but they don't take examinations and they receive no credit for the course.

Twenty of the "students" are Atomic Energy Commission workers at Portsmouth, Ohio. The AEC has provided classroom space and a television set. The workers show up at the installation at 7 a.m., watch the TV show for 30 minutes, discuss what they've heard and learned, then start work at 8 a.m.

In addition, Professor Steele says 10 physicians are among the area residents looking in. Quite a few other people in various professions are "enrolled".

"I've talked with some of these viewers," Professor Steele pointed out, "and I get advice from them all of the time. In fact, one woman wrote me a 15-page letter on how the course should be presented. Many of the letters express appreciation because the course is being offered."

Professor Steele, who learned the Russian language while living in China, points out that this is not his forte. "I'm a political scientist, but there was a need for this course and I've gotten it started."

He says that next September it's expected there will be a full-time professor of Russian language and literature at Marshall.

DR. MOFFAT TO SPEAK

Dr. Charles Moffat, professor of history, will speak to the state convention of the West Virginia Society of Colonial Dames of America Wednesday in Charleston.

Correct Addresses Delaying Directory

All students who have changed addresses since registering for the fall semester are asked to notify the Information Service of their current, correct address. Hundreds of students who registered in the spring and summer now have new addresses. Addresses and telephone numbers appearing on the registration card will be used for the Student Directory, unless corrected immediately.

Frank Spear director of the Information Service said, "lack of complete or correct local address is delaying publication of the 1960-61 directory".

Students To See Senate In Action

By ARCHIE GLASPELL
Staff Reporter

A Senate meeting, open to all students and faculty who wish to attend, will be conducted at 11 a.m. tomorrow in Old Main Auditorium.

The main purpose of this meeting is to acquaint the Student Body with the functions of the Student Senate. This is to be a regular meeting and several items of business will be reviewed. One will be a proposal by Bob Bledsoe, Webster Springs senior, concerning the formation of a "Homecoming Team" to officiate over next year's activities.

Reports from the Joint Cabinet and Senate committees will be made available to those attending. These reports will be in synopsis form.

Plans for this meeting were made by Student Government Affairs Committee headed by Frank Dent, Charleston senior.

If time allows, questions from the spectators will be answered by Senators. This is another feature added to create more interest by the student body in the activities of the Senate and Student Government.

Superintendent Resigns Post

Thomas A. Bolyard has resigned as superintendent of buildings and grounds effective last Friday. Mr. Bolyard came to Marshall in 1953 to serve as superintendent.

He received his A.B. from Alderson-Broaddus College in Philippi and his M.A. from West Virginia University. Before coming to Marshall, he served as industrial arts teacher at Philippi, Grafton, and Morgantown High Schools. He has also served as principal of the Cassville Junior High School.

Dr. A. E. McCaskey, Dean of College of Applied Science, will serve as acting superintendent until further notice.

'Dear Delinquent' Will Open Tonight

The production "Dear Delinquent", will mark the opening of the 35th season of the College Theater at 8:15 tonight in Old Main Auditorium.

Written by Jack Popplewell, "Dear Delinquent" is the story of a young girl, Penelope Shawn, who is engaged in the traditional occupation of her family—burglary. The Shawns are proud of the success in their occupation and are trying to carry it on from generation to generation.

However, Penelope runs into trouble when she is discovered attempting to rob the apartment of David Warren. Warren tries to reform her, despite the objections of Penelope's father and his own fiancée, Helen Chandler.

Starring on alternate nights in the role of Penelope will be Sonja Wilhelm, Hamlin senior, and Marguerite Dean, Logan sophomore. Jeffrey Cowden, Huntington freshman, and David Wayland, Parkersburg freshman, will alternate in the role of David Warren. Mary Humphreys, freshman and Bonnie Barnett, junior both of Huntington, alternate as Helen Chandler, fiancée of Warren.

Diana Abruzzino, Huntington senior, portrays Lady Warren; Charles Cummings, Huntington senior, is Mr. Shawn; Click Smith, Huntington junior, is cast as Sir George; John Davis, Cass sophomore, plays Wilkinson the butler, and Richard Pauley, Huntington senior plays the part of the detective, Pigeon.

"Dear Delinquent" is the first of three plays for the 1960-1961 season.

Size Of The Loot Inspected Closely

INSPECTING THE LOOT acquired as a result of his daughter's skill at burglary is Sir George Shawn (Click Smith, Huntington junior). Looking on are Penelope Shawn (Sonja Wilhelm, Hamlin senior) and David Warren (David Wayland, Parkersburg freshman. The three are part of the cast of the College Theater's production of "Dear Delinquent."

Chug, Chug, Chug Goes The Choo-Choo

THE MOWER is the subject of the petition now being circulated on campus by the State Awareness Commission. The petition will be sent to the joint legislative committee in a combined effort with other state colleges and West Virginia University to "save a railroad" and establish a railroading and logging museum as a tourist attraction.

'Save RR' Petitions Underway

Marshall College is joining other state colleges and the University in a campaign to "save a railroad," according to Jane Butler, Huntington junior and coordinator of the State Awareness Commission.

The Commission is circulating a petition which will go to the joint legislative committee on Sunday. Miss Butler explained that she hoped to get as close to 4000 signatures as possible. That would include the students, faculty and administration.

The Mower Lumber Company Railroad of Cass was being scrapped until a Pennsylvania businessman, Russell Baum, explained the tourist potentiality to the state legislature. "The Mower" is an antique railroad near the Virginia state boarder which could be developed into a railroading and logging museum.

West Virginia University initiated the campaign through their State Awareness Commission and submitted a petition with 3,550 signatures. Sheppard, Glenville, Wheeling, Concord, Wesleyan and Bethany colleges also plan to submit similar petitions.

Petition blanks have already been circulated to the Greek and Independent groups, according to Miss Butler who received her appointment two weeks ago. Petitions will also be circulated in the dorms tomorrow night and a table will be set up in the Student Union all day Thursday and Friday to obtain signatures.

John Killoran, Lewisburg senior, suggested the campus project at last week's Senate meeting.

Miss Butler also said that anyone interested in working on the State Awareness Commission should apply in the Student Government office.

MEETING SET

Mrs. Alberta Corder, representing the Stanley Home Products, Inc., will be on campus at 4 p.m. Nov. 10 in Old Main, Room 116. She will conduct a group meeting with students interested in part-time and summer work.

The Parthenon

MARSHALL COLLEGE STUDENT NEWSPAPER

Established 1896
Member of West Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association
Full-leased Wire of The Associated Press.
Entered as second class matter, May 29, 1945, at the Post Office at Huntington, West Virginia, under Act of Congress, March 3, 1879.
Published semi-weekly during school year and weekly during summer by Department of Journalism, Marshall College, 16th Street and 3rd Avenue, Huntington, West Virginia.
STAFF
Phone JA 3-8562 or Journalism Dept., Ex. 235 of JA 3-3411
Editor-in-chief ..... Susan Atkinson
Business Manager ..... Charles Lieble
Managing Editor ..... Johnny Hines
Campus Editor ..... Patty Poliskey
Assistant Campus Editor ..... Carol Newman
Sports Editor ..... Margaret Williams
Feature Editor ..... Frank Childers
Editorial Counselor ..... Joe Workman
Faculty Advisor ..... William Francis
W. Page Pitt

COMMERCIAL PTC. & LITHO. CO.

OHIO VALLEY BUS COMPANY

TAKE A BUS TO THE GAME
Safe, Fast and Convenient
Wherever You Go—Go Ohio Valley
CALL HAMILTON 9-1341

"MISS CJ" Contest Rules

1. The entry period will officially begin on November 2, 1960, and close at 4:00 p.m. November 30.
2. Any female full-time student at Marshall College is eligible and invited to enter.
3. Each entrant is required to submit the following:
A. A photograph of herself. All photos must be 8x10, to insure fairness and uniformity in judging.
B. A paper listing her full name, local address, home town classification, major field and age.
4. All entrants will be judged on a basis of beauty alone.
5. A board of judges, selected by the Editor-In-Chief of the 1961 Chief Justice and approved by the Chief Justice Board, will select a group of eight finalists from among the entries.
6. These eight finalists will be notified by the Editor-In-Chief and will, at their earliest convenience be photographed by Charles Leith, campus photographer.
7. Photos of the eight finalists will be sent to Charles Schulz, creator of the comic strip, Peanuts, for final judging.
8. Mr. Schulz will choose one queen, to be known as "Miss C.J." and two attendants.
9. Winners will be announced as soon as possible after notification by Mr. Schulz.
10. Miss CJ will be awarded a trophy and will have a full page devoted to her in the 1961 Chief Justice. She will also attend the Chief Justice Banquet.
11. Her two attendants will receive trophies and have a half page devoted to them in the 1961 Chief Justice. They will also attend the banquet. The other five finalists will receive certificates.
12. All candidates must personally bring their entry material to the Chief Justice office on the second floor of the Student Union or to Old Main 112. The Chief Justice can accept no responsibility for material presented in any other manner. All photographs and material will become the property of the 1961 Chief Justice and can not be returned.

1961 CHIEF JUSTICE

Homecoming Is Alumni Success Services Held For Mrs. Lander Beal

No one should ever be in doubt as to the success of Homecoming when alumni come from as far away as Monterey, California to attend, says John M. Sayre, director of Development and Alumni Affairs.

Alumni from many areas of the United States attended the homecoming activities, which included a large turnout at the annual party.

They came from the following areas: Norfolk, Va.; Greensboro, N. C.; Oak Park, Mich.; Louisville, Ky.; Lincoln, Neb.; Luther-ville, Md.; Garden City, Mich.; Roanoke, Va.; Salisbury, Md.; and many other parts of the country.

Mrs. Lander L. Beal, 26, wife of the Rev. Lander Beal, religious counselor, died Sunday night in a Huntington Hospital following a long illness. Funeral services were conducted yesterday at the First Methodist Church by Dr. Garrett H. Evans. Burial was in Boulevard Memorial Cemetery.

Mrs. Beal was the former Miss Sue Carter Beckwith of Huntington. Her father is the owner of the B&B Food Market.

Surviving in addition to her husband and parents are two daughters and one sister.

ROYAL — COLE — SMITH CORONAS — UNDERWOODS
REMINGTONS — OLYMPIAS
OLIVETTI — VOSS

Rentals $4.66 Mo. (3 Mo.)
Service—This Clipping worth $1.00
on Typewriter Tune-up

CRUTCHER
BUSINESS MACHINES

1701 5th Ave. Phone JA 5-1771
Huntington, W. Va.

Take me to your Esterbrook
dealer!

Attention earthlings! The word is getting around! Esterbrook Fountain Pens are out of this world! With 32 custom-fitted pen points there's an Esterbrook to fit any writing personality—star-struck or earth-bound.

The Esterbrook Classic is only $2.95 and great for class notes. It starts to write as soon as you do ... with that amazing new miracle discovery—ink! Feels just right in the hand, too—not fat, not thin, looks good, too! Colors? There's a veritable rainbow to choose from. Pick your favorite of six colors. Why not today? No space ship needed. Just zero in on your Esterbrook dealer.

Esterbrook Pens

THE CLASSIC
FOUNTAIN PEN
$2.95
Other Esterbrook
pens from $1.65

THERE'S A POINT CHOICE OF 32—ONE IS CUSTOM-FITTED FOR YOU!

Jule Rivlin Takes Look At Cage Team

Big Green Coach Likes What He Sees

Cage Team Shaping Up; Future Rosy

In less than a month the Big Green basketball squad will meet its first foe, a tough Marietta College team that will boast veteran sharpshooters.

How are the varsity hoopsters shaping up? What are their chances of a 'winning season? These questions, and many others, are on the lips of thousands of fans in the Tri-State area—and the 4,000-plus student body.

Here are the answers to some of these questions. The analyst is the genial mentor of the varsity team, Coach Jule Rivlin, who is himself one of the all-time greats in Marshall basketball history.

1. Any count-down on this squad must take into consideration the 1960-61 schedule. "This is the toughest one in the past 10 or 15 years," Coach Rivlin points out. "We're playing two co-favorites in the Ohio Valley Conference (Eastern and Western Kentucky), and both of them are ranked among the top 20 teams in the nation. We'll be playing the favorite in the Missouri Valley Conference (University of Cincinnati), and we're playing the favorite in the Southern Conference (George Washington University). Then we'll tangle with Clemson in the Atlantic Coast Conference, which last season beat North Carolina. And, if this isn't tough enough, we're competing in the Mid-American Conference which is the best since its inception.

"I look at our schedule every day," the coach sighed, "but I don't see a breather."

2. In spite of this schedule, the coaching staff is optimistic. "We hope to win more than we lose, but we're going to play one game at a time," Rivlin said.

Why is there optimism for a winning season? There are several reasons: The current crop of sophomores, which has resulted in a battle for start-berths; the competitive spirit of the team, and DEPTH.

"We're a little bit thin on experience," Rivlin pointed out, "but we're very pleased with the competitive spirit of the boys and we have depth, which we didn't have last year."

In fact the optimism that prevailed in 1955, when Marshall posted an 18-6 record, can be felt now.

"We're high on our sophomores this season. There's a keen battle going on now for starting berths, and that's why I think we're so optimistic."

In addition to his rosy report, Freshman Coach Sonny Allen has turned up some excellent prospects who have speed and are exceptionally good marksmen.

Who will be the starters when 15 team members suit up Dec. 3 for the game against Marietta at the Memorial Field House? Because of the competition, it's "impossible to pick a starting lineup yet," the coach said. "I can tell you that Burgess is going to start."

This, of course, comes as no surprise to anyone who watched the 6-8 junior battling last year.

Here's a thumbnail sketch of the varsity team members who average 6-2—the tallest team Rivlin has ever coached.

BOB BURGESS—a junior from Blair, W. Va. He's tall (6-8½), has speed for his size, good marksman who can shoot with either hand. He can be "a great one" this year.

PHIL CARTER—a sophomore from Clarksburg, W. Va. He's a left-handed shooter and a Goose Tatum-type ball player (What else could a coach ask for?).

STEVE FEOLA—a sophomore from Buchannon, W. Va. He's a left-handed shooter, excellent marksman, fast, and a good thinker.

JAMES GALLION—a junior from Russell, Ky. He's experienced, exhibits great desire, and battles all the way.

CHARLES (CHUCK) GORDON—a senior from Wheeling, W. Va. (Because of a heart condition last season, a request may be made to the MAC for another year of eligibility.) He's an all-around player who speeds up the offense and is an excellent dribbler. Good ball-hawk on defense.

CHARLES GRIFFIN—a junior from Huntington. Griffin dropped out of school last year, but has returned for this season's hoop struggles. "He's an excellent defensive player," Rivlin says.

RONNIE LAMBERT—a junior from Huntington. "One of the three most highly-spirited boys we've had in a long time. He can be an excellent spot player."

BRUCE MOODY—a senior from New York City. "No doubt one of the best rebounders in the country."

CHARLES MOORE—a junior from Huntington. "One of the most improved ballplayers this year. He's developed a two-hand set shot and has great competitive spirit."

LEWIS (LEW) MOTT—a senior from Pine Grove, W. Va. Spearhead of the fast-break who faces competition, but is battling hard. Excellent on individual defense and ball-hawking.

CORKY LAYMAN—a sophomore from Huntington. He's fast and could develop into an extremely good middleman with a little more experience.

Body movements are deceptive.

DAVE PUGH—a junior from Chester, W. Va. One of the three most highly-spirited team members who can be excellent spot player.

GENE SLATER—a sophomore from Ripley, W. Va. A transfer student from West Virginia University, he's a great hustler and a good defensive player who could develop into a starter.

MICKEY SYDENSTRICKER—a sophomore from Huntington. For his size (6-4), he has excellent speed, shoots with either hand and has very good timing.

HARRY ROBERTS—a junior from Milton, W. Va. Probably one of the best one-handed shooters on the team.

DICK (THE STILT?) WILDT—a 6-7 sophomore from Parkersburg. Maturing into a college prospect, good height, and an impressive morale-builder.

TEX WILLIAMS—a senior from Artie, W. Va. Because of experience, he can now help the team "tremendously". Best asset is jumping ability and ardent player.

In addition to these 17 players, there are three sophomores who have exhibited talent and will be available to Rivlin. They are Jerry Morrison, 6-4;

Willie Tucker, 6-4½; and Larry Williams, 6-7. Morrison is from Cinco; Tucker from Weirton, and Williams from Olive Hill.

Courts Longer? Rivlin Wonders

Can Coach Jule Rivlin still rattle the hoops, flash across the hardwoods?

One of the all-time greats in Marshall College basketball history, the 1947-49 "flash" says:

"I feel as good as in 1947, but the courts are getting a little bit longer and the baskets a little bit smaller."

NO UNION ACTIVITIES

Due to the College Theatre's production of "Dear Delinquent," the Union has not scheduled any activities tonight through Friday. The Union will be open for those students that do not attend the play.

A dance lasting until midnight is on the agenda for Saturday night.

HESS SUUFFERS ATTACK

Dr. Clarke F. Hess, professor of education, suffered a heart attack Monday. He is now in the Cabell-Huntington Hospital and will probably be out of school for at least a month.

Make Your Holiday Reservations Now — at the Huntington Automobile Club

HUNTINGTON AUTOMOBILE CLUB

612 Ninth Street

Phone JA 3-3441

SPURLOCK OFFICE SERVICE

Sell — Rent — Service
ROYAL TYPEWRITERS

$5.00 One Month — $13.50 Three Months

Rent May Be Applied To Purchase

1318 FOURTH AVENUE

PHONE JA 2-8264

PHOTO FINISHING

24 hr. service up to 5 P. M. "We operate our own plant!"
SPECIAL MARSHALL COLLEGE SCRAPBOOK .... $2.75

HONAKER, INC.

416 NINTH STREET

Bobcats Defeat Big Green Marshall Players Lauded

By BILL TOW
Sports Writer

Playing under gray skies, a biting wind and a steady drizzle, the Big Green lost its third Mid-American Conference game to the Ohio University Bobcats, 19-0, Saturday.

The Big Green kicked off and it took the Bobcats nine plays to score the first touchdown and extra point of the game. After the Cats scored, the two teams were held to slight ground gains and were forced to kick.

The Big Green defense held the opposition during the remainder of the half and almost to the end of the game. Two intercepted passes in the last three minutes of play by Bobcat defense set up two more touchdowns, but the extra point attempts were unsuccessful.

The game was mostly a ground attack. The Bobcats had a total of 237 yards rushing and the Big Green had 131. The Big Green went to the air nine times completing four of the passes.

Three of the passes were intercepted. The Cats attempted eight and completed three.

The Big Green had a total offensive yardage of 162 yards and the Bobcats, 283. The Green gave the Bobcats a run for the money and again Dixon Edwards earned honors carrying the ball 13 times, gaining 52 yards. Millard Fleming carried the ball 16 times for a total of 30 yards and quarterback Bob Hamlin handled the ball for a 19-yard gain on the one time he ran with it. Ralph May tossed the pigskin seven times and completed four for a total of 31 yards. Hamlin had one pass intercepted as did Fleming. End Toddy Fugate was on the receiving end of two passes and gained 21 yards.

The Big Green kicked six times for a 30-yard average, while Ohio University kicked three times and averaged 41 yards.

Coach Charlie Snyder said, "The game was a good one. The score should have been 7-0 but they made the most of the two interceptions. I thought that the boys played well and they deserve a lot of credit."

Commenting on this Saturday's game with Western Michigan, he said, "We should beat them and I think we will. It will be an all-out affair. If we win, we will end up in fourth place, higher than many thought we would."

The Big Green leaves Thursday by bus for Kalamazoo and a 2 p.m. game on Saturday with Western Michigan.

Marco's Memorandum

Wednesday, Nov. 9—Coffee Hour for faculty and administrative staff, 9:30-11 a.m., North Parlor, Faculty Wives Club.

Thursday, Nov. 10—"Et Cetera" meeting, 1 p.m., Old Main 317.

Veteran's Club luncheon, 11 a.m., Cafeteria.

Friday, Nov. 11—Alpha Xi Delta "Sadie Hawkins" informal, American Legion Hall, 9-1 a.m.

Saturday, Nov. 12—Marshall vs. Western Michigan, away. Sigma Kappa, "Farmer's Frolic," informal, 9-1 a.m., Fraternal Hall.

Sigma Sigma Sigma retreat, 6 p.m. to Sunday noon, Mad Anthony Wayne.

Babysitting is Big Business On Campus With Good Pay

By DIANE STEVENSON

Babysitting is becoming big business at Marshall compared with demands for other jobs, according to Bob Alexander, director of Placement.

The records reveal that men want to babysit as well as women. Thirteen per cent of the male applicants and 59 per cent of the females go on record as willing to baby sit. One male applicant stipulated that his "babies" had to be female and over 18.

The pay averages 75 cents per hour and some students have acquired regular jobs as sitters. One sitting job paid $2.89 per hour for odd hours and overtime and another paid $1.50 per hour for a bartender at a local country club.

ONLY if you want to be the object of the stagline's attentions . . .

ONLY if you don't mind a few green-eyed looks . . .

ONLY then will you wear this luscious velveteen and charm him speechless on that big date! In jet black or flame red, sizes 5 to 15 at just 17.95

The Smart Shop
NINTH STREET AND FOURTH AVENUE
JA 3-9466

PIZZA

TINY'S PLACE

Plate Lunches—Spaghetti

Short Orders

Sandwiches—Soft Drinks

1527 Third Avenue

MEAL TICKETS

MEAL TICKETS

MEAL TICKETS

On Campus with Max Shulman

(Author of "I Was a Teen-age Dwarf", "The Many Loves of Dobie Gillis", etc.)

A MODEST PROPOSAL

A movement is afoot—a shocking, startling movement—to solve the problem of overcrowded colleges by the simple expedient of refusing admission to women at coeducational schools!

It is argued by proponents of this plan that in today's world a college education is absolutely essential for a man, while for a woman it is merely a pleasant interlude between adolescence and housewifery. There is simply not room enough for both men and women in our overburdened colleges; therefore, in all fairness, women who have far less need of a degree than men, must yield their places.

Well sir, when I heard this drastic proposal, I was so shocked that I sat right down and lit a Marlboro. I always sit right down and light a Marlboro when I am shocked. I also always sit right down and light a Marlboro when I am not shocked. There is no time, no condition, no mood, no estate when it isn't a source of soul-deep gratification to settle back and have a full-flavored smoke—Marlboro, the filtered cigarette with the unfiltered taste—Marlboro, the jewel of cigarettes—Marlboro, the pinnacle of the tobaccoist's art—Marlboro, my comfort, haven, and snug harbor.

Well sir, I sat smoking my Marlboro and thinking over the shocking proposal to keep women out of coed schools, and hoping fervently that another solution can be found. If the calamitous day ever comes when women are banned from coed colleges, I will gnash my teeth and rend my garments and take to my bed without supper. Like any other Marlboro man, I love women. I love the sight and sound of them, the cut of their jibs, their beauty and grace, their cunning little spitecurls, their sleek dimples, their middy blouses, their aura and effluvium. Moreover, I freely admit that when it comes to brainpower, they can give the average man cards and spades and big casino too. It would be a shame, a disgrace and a catastrophe to keep these beautiful, intelligent creatures out of college.

However, it is always wise in time of fair weather to prepare for foul. What if the advocates of keeping women out of college begin to gather strength? We who abhor this fiendish plan must be ready with a substitute . . . and it just so happens I have one—and a mighty ingenious little plan it is, if I say so myself.

Granted that classroom seats are in short supply, and granted that men need degrees more than women, it is still not necessary to bar women from college. Let them go to college but—here is the beauty part of my plan—don't let them go to class!

I love the sight and sound of them...

This solution, it seems to me, answers every requirement. It releases hundreds of thousands of classroom seats to needy males. At the same time, it does not deprive women of the rich and varied benefits of campus life. They can join sororities, shoot pool at the Union, build bonfires for Homecoming games, pour at the Dean's tea, plait daisies in their hair, organize drag races, sculpt in ice, hook rugs, walk their cheetahs, play Monopoly, find love—in short, they can do anything except go to class.

Tell the truth, girls: Is that bad?

© 1960 Max Shulman

Classroom space is short, but smoking pleasure is in abundant supply. Try Marlboros—or Marlboro's unfiltered sister cigarette—mild, flavorful Philip Morris, now available in regular size or the sensational new king-size Commander. Have a Commander—welcome aboard!